

TEACHING ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE (TESL) CERTIFICATE

This program offers intensive, short-term teacher training leading to a TESL certificate, issued by a recognized, government accredited post-secondary institute. Graduates of this 120-hour program will find ESL teaching positions abound in the international marketplace, private language schools, and private tutoring. TESL is an affordable alternative to other English Language teacher training programs, which require a bachelor's degree.

Perspective students must attend the free application session.

Admission Requirements:

Minimum Grade 12 diploma or equivalent, completed application form including English skills test, consent for criminal records search and satisfactory standard of English. Must be at least 20 years of age and must have a level of education that allows entry to higher education in their own country. International students should have one of the following scores: TOEFL 590, Grade B Cambridge, or VEC Level 6B Average.
